

Making a binding death benefit nomination in the Mercer Super Trust

Who'll get your super if you die?

You can nominate one or more beneficiaries that you require the trustee of the Mercer Super Trust to pay your superannuation death benefit to should you die whilst being a member of the Mercer Super Trust, by making a 'binding death benefit nomination'.

You have the option of choosing:

- a three year lapsing binding death benefit nomination, which will automatically expire after three years, or
- a non-lapsing binding death benefit nomination.

If you make a binding death benefit nomination and it is still valid and in effect at the event of your death, the trustee of the Mercer Super Trust will be bound to follow it and pay your death payout to the beneficiaries you have nominated and in the proportions specified by you.

If you do not wish to make a binding death benefit nomination, and your employer plan allows it, you may still nominate who you would prefer to receive your superannuation death benefit in the event of your death, by completing the separate Nominating your preferred beneficiaries in the Mercer Super Trust form, available from the Mercer Super Trust website at mercersuper.com.au/documents or by calling the Helpline on 1800 682 525. A preferred nomination would not be legally binding on the trustee of the Mercer Super Trust.

You can change your binding death benefit nomination at any time. As your personal circumstances change, it's important to remember to keep your nomination up-to-date.

Completing the form

To make a binding death benefit nomination in the Mercer Super Trust you must:

- Complete this form in full and sign and date it in the presence of two witnesses. The witnesses must be at least 18 years of age and neither of them can be a nominated beneficiary within this form. Each witness must also sign and date the form in Step 5.
- Only nominate someone who is your Dependant* and/or legal personal representative (of your Estate).
- Ensure you clearly specify the percentage of your super that you wish to allocate to each beneficiary and that the total allocation equals 100%.

Once properly made, your nomination replaces any previous nomination you may have made, whether of preferred beneficiaries or a binding death benefit nomination.

If you wish to revoke an existing binding death benefit nomination and not make a further nomination you need only complete Steps 1, 4 and 5 of this form, leaving Step 2 and 3 blank.

What you should know about binding death benefit nominations

In the event that you die without a valid and in effect binding death benefit nomination in place, the trustee of the Mercer Super Trust will be required to exercise its discretion and either pay your entire death payout to your Estate or decide on payment of your death payout to any one or more of your Dependants.

A binding death benefit nomination will become invalid if:

- it is not made using the required Binding Death Benefit Nomination form.
- the Binding Death Benefit Nomination form has not been properly completed (for example, the nominated proportions are not clear or do not equal 100%, or the form has not been signed and witnessed correctly),
- at the time of your death, one or more of the beneficiaries nominated by you have died or is not your Dependant* or legal personal representative,
- · you remarry after making the nomination,
- you were legally incapable of making the nomination, or
- the trustee is legally restrained or prohibited from paying your super payout to one or more of the beneficiaries nominated by you.

Lapsing binding death benefit nominations cease to have effect after a period of three years from the date you sign your nomination, unless revoked by you earlier. It would also cease to have effect if you are subject to a Court Order at the time of your death, that prohibited you from making a binding death benefit nomination or required you to amend or revoke a nomination, or if (and for so long as) the trustee is prevented from paying out your death payout in accordance with your nomination due to Family Law.

Non-lapsing binding death benefit nominations do not cease until you change or revoke it, or it becomes invalid for reasons previously mentioned. It would also cease to have effect if you are subject to a Court Order at the time of your death, that prohibited you from making a binding death benefit nomination or required you to amend or revoke a nomination, or if (and for so long as) the trustee is prevented from paying out your death payout in accordance with your nomination due to Family Law.
